All glories to His Divine Grace paramapujya Srikrishna chaitanya madhva goudiswaracharya Jagadguru sripada Srikrishnabalarama swamiji maharaj prabhupadaPujyapada. My humble obeisance to His divine Lotus feet. As the scriptures say that the Great mahatmas take their incarnation on auspicious days , My Spiritual Master incarnated on this auspicious day of Sri Jagannath Radha yatra day. The Supreme God Srikrishna in Kaliyuga as Lord Jagannath shower His kind blessings to the devotees by coming out of His temple along with His elder brother Lord Sri Balaram and His sister Subhadra. My Gurudev took incarnation as His representative in this world to uplift the ignorant people who are suffering from the three fold miseries of material world through His preaching of transcendental knowledge gained from within.

My Spiritual Master hailed from a Srothriya Brahmana family in Vrandaban Dham and He became the Learned Master of all Spiritual knowledge. He took initiation from a renowned Vaishna Spiritual Master and till today He is following His Guru's order by preaching the Goudiya Vaishnava philosophy throughout the world by surpassing so many problems even from His God brothers. He does not allow anybody to do any small mistake in devotional service. He is always in the sphere of Goloka Dham who joyfully chanting the glories and Pastimes of SriSri RadhaKrishna .

To remove the ignorance and arrogance of Kaliyuga people My Guruji wrote many commentaries to the ancient scriptures in English which is the common language of world in the present days. Namely, Srimadbhagavtgeetha, Srimadbhagavata mahapurana, Gurunirnaya dipika, Mokshamarg, Vedanthasuthra, The process of devotional service, Bhaktibhajan mala, Harileela, Ekadasi the day of Lord Hari, Haricharya dipika in Hindi , svetasvatara upanishath and The ocean of Bhaktiras. Out of all the commentaries the commentary to the Vedantha Sutra is not written by anybody in three languages since two hundred years.

By observing all the above qualities of my Spiritual Master all the Vaishnava Spiritual masters belong to the four Vaishnava Sampradayas and other mahatmas assembled at prayagraj at the time of mahakumbhmela in the shore of Ganga river and announced Him Parampujya Srikrishna chaitanya madhva goudiswaracharya Jagadguru Sripada Srikrishnabalarama swamiji maharaj prabhupada We, all the devotees and deciples are very lucky to have Jagadguru as our Spiritual Master, who certainly take us to take back to the Supreme personality of Godhead Lord Srikrishna.

My Guruji has given me an order to come to Vrindaban dham and serve Lord SriRadhagovind devji by giving plans and supervision in the construction of Redstone temple and Ashram. With the blessings of my Guruji I could fulfill His order from which all the devotees all over the world who come to Vrindaban dham are enjoying the holy darshan of SriRadha GovindDevji.

I pray the Lord Srikrishna to bless my Spiritual Master to be happy and healthy always and in all respects. I am always eager to get the blessings of my Guruji to serve Him and follow His divine orders till my last breath. JaiSriradhey !

Always in the service of my Guruji

SRI GURU CHARANA KAMALEBHYO NAMAH

To, My Dearest Gurudeva Jagadguru Sri Krsna Balaram Swamiji. Please accept my most humble obeisance at the dust of your Lotus feet.

O Gurudeva, I possess no good qualities nor was I born into a family with a spiritual upbringing. I was perpetually trapped in deep ignorance, restlessly pursuing mundane desires. But then your presence illuminated my life like a guiding star through the darkest night. I was drowning in illusion, and Gurudeva you opened my eyes with the torchlight of knowledge. Since then, many aspects of my life have been transformed. I have experienced genuine personal growth within. Your transcendental guidance through your Nectarian vānī and sacred books has been my unwavering support during all my hardships. O Gurudeva, sadly due to my entanglement in the modes of passion and ignorance combined with unfavourable circumstances, I have not been able to serve you as you desired. As you rest within everyone's heart, I humbly beseech you to kindly bestow upon me the supreme transcendental treasure of Krsna Prema and continue guiding me along the path of Krsna consciousness. Without your compassionate mercy, my situation appears utterly hopeless. I am completely incapable of achieving anything on my own.

Dear Gurudeva, please grant me the strength to avoid becoming trapped by temporary material pleasures and pains. Please, assist me in overcoming obstacles and weaknesses that divert my focus from you and Krsna, guiding me towards unwavering devotion. I am determined to make the most of this human form of life, learning and spreading Krsna consciousness, for which you selflessly made countless sacrifices for the betterment of humanity. I also request you to please always keep me under the shade of your lotus feet.

Jai Śrī Rādhe!

All glories to His Divine Grace Jagadguru Śrī Kṛṣṇa Chaitanya Mādhvagaṇeśvarācārya
Śrīpāda Kṛṣṇa Balarām Swāmī Mahārāj Prabhupāda.

My dearest Gurudeva,

On the most auspicious occasion of your Vyāsa-pūjā, I offer my humble obeisances at your divine lotus feet, seeking your eternal mercy and guidance. This day is not merely a celebration of your appearance, but a profound opportunity to reflect upon the immeasurable gift of your presence in our lives and the spiritual legacy you so mercifully bestow.

My Gurudeva : — The Ocean of Mercy, The Walking Encyclopedia of Śāstra

O Gurudeva You are not just a saint, You are the very embodiment of divine wisdom and compassion. A walking encyclopedia of scriptural knowledge, Your every word is deeply rooted in the Vedic scriptures—Guru, Sādhū, and Śāstra. Whether quoting from the pristine teachings of the Bhagavad-gītā, Śrīmad-Bhāgavatam, or countless other Vedic texts, You brings ancient truths to life with astonishing clarity and depth, making the most complex teachings accessible to all.

O Gurudeva, You are the only Vrajavāsī disciple of His Divine Grace A.C. Bhaktivedānta Swāmī Śrīla Prabhupāda, and Your life is a rare jewel in the lineage of Gauḍīya Vaiṣṇavism. Living in the sacred land of Vṛndāvana, Your every breath is steeped in the divine mood of Rādhā and Kṛṣṇa's eternal pastimes. You doesn't just teach Kṛṣṇa consciousness, You live in it every moment, guiding the souls not by philosophy alone, but by personal example.

An ocean of mercy, O Gurudeva Your compassion and love know no bounds. You accepts even the most fallen, lifting them with Your unconditional love, divine patience, and unshakable faith in the power of the Holy Name. Your glance purifies, Your smile uplifts, and Your instructions awaken the soul to its eternal nature. Your mission is not limited by time, place, or circumstance.

You see the soul, not the covering.

In every heart, You see the potential to serve Śrī Śrī Rādhā-Govinda. You have dedicated Your life to awakening dormant devotion and illuminating the path of pure bhakti in the hearts of souls lost in the darkness of this Kali Yuga.

You are teaching us the essence of Rāgānugā-bhakti, showing us how to cultivate pure love for Śrī Śrī Rādhā-Govinda, following in the footsteps of the Vrajavāsīs. Your life is a continuous sacrifice, dedicated to fulfilling the innermost desire of Śrī Śrī Rādhā-Govinda.

O Gurudeva, every instruction you give is filled with eternal spiritual wisdom. By your causeless mercy, a heart like mine feels the fragrance of devotion. You taught me not just through words, but by Your living example, Your renunciation, Your tireless preaching, Your sleepless nights spent in service, and Your one-pointed intelligence in Śrī Śrī Rādhā-Govinda.

O Gurudeva, You are my shelter, my worshipable Lord, my heart's life. And without Your mercy, I would be lost in the darkness of material existence.

May I live only to glorify You, serve Your instructions, and manifest Your will. Please keep me always under Your shelter. Please help me become a disciple who does not bring shame to Your lotus feet. I do not ask for liberation, name, fame, or comfort. I only pray, please never let me forget You. May I always remain as a dust particle at Your lotus feet, and serve Your mission with unwavering dedication. Let my body, mind, and words be instruments of Your divine will.

Please bless me with steadfast devotion, genuine taste for bhakti and a deep mood of loving service.

Your humble servant forever,

Dipikādevī dāsī

Dear Spiritual Father,

Please accept my humble obeisances at your lotus feet. All glories to your divine grace. It's been almost 6 years since I took shelter at your lotus feet, trying to serve your divine grace and Śrī Śrī Rādhā Govinda in the best way I can, sometimes making mistakes. You forgave my every wrongdoing and took my service, correcting my every mistake. In scriptures, the glories of Sri Guru are described in the following way:

*mūkaṁ karoti vācāraṁ
paṅguṁ laṅghayate girim
yat-krpā tam ahaṁ vande
śrī-guruṁ dīna-tāraṇam*

I offer my respectful obeisances unto my Spiritual Master by whose mercy even a dumb man can become the greatest orator, and even a lame man can cross mountains.

Śrīla Narottama Das Ṭhākur writes in prayers to his Gurudev as follows:

chakṣu-dāna dilo jei janme-janme prabhū sei

The Spiritual Master rewards transcendental vision and destroys the darkness of ignorance by filling the heart with transcendental realizations, which is why he is my worshipable Lord birth after birth.

And scripture also says that one who thinks that he can repay debt to his Spiritual Master is the biggest of the fools. One who thinks of the Spiritual Master as a normal human being because he too accepted a human body is an ignorant person. As Śrīla Viswanath Chakravathy Ṭhākur writes in his Guruvāṣṭakam as follows:

*sākṣād haritvena samasta śāstrair
ukas tathā bhāvyata eva sadbhiḥ kintu prabhor yaḥ priya eva tasya vande guroḥ śrī charaṇāravindam*

All the revealed scriptures state that the Spiritual Master is the direct human representative of the Supreme Lord, and all the Vedic sages and saintly authorities have accepted him as such. Therefore, the Spiritual Master is to be honored as much as the Supreme Lord Himself. Regardless of this position, he is still the confidential servitor of the Lord. I offer my respectful obeisance at the lotus feet of such a Spiritual Master.

These are just a few pieces of evidence stating that the Spiritual Master is as good as God. He should be served at all times with utmost care. I'm always very happy and feel lucky to reside in Vrindavan Dham. Without your divine grace's causeless mercy, it cannot be possible. Please bless me in such way that I can serve your divine grace and help in the mission of spreading this Kṛṣṇa consciousness movement throughout the whole world. Many vices may come in this path,, but by your divine grace's blessing everything will be cleared. Please forgive me for my mistakes and offenses. Thanking you.

Your servant,
Tirupati Das,
Vrindavan, India

Namaskāram Swamiji,

Please accept my humble obeisances at your lotus feet.

Swamiji, I was confused, behind knowledge, I was in a illusion that gathering more and more knowledge, indulging in sampradayaic debates is Bhakti. But, after meeting you, by your kṛpā, I realised that I was drowning in māyā. Bhakti Rasa Samudra seva which you've given to me, has changed my life. All my doubts were cleared after reading it. The seva has slowed down but I hopefully, it will speed up again after hectic work load decreases. I'm about to complete reading the Bhāgavata saptāha book swamiji, all with your blessings. I'm really feeling so excited and happy while I'm reading your books Swamiji. It's happening after I took blessings from you. But, I'm unable to firmly stay in a certain state of mind for a long time Swamiji. Many times, māyā is taking over. With your blessings, one fine day I wish that I will strongly stand on the right path and mould myself the as per your instructions. Seeking your blessings to serve you in every possible way Swamiji. I'm ineligible to do this, but I have firm faith in your blessings Swamiji. Please bless me so that I can be in your Seva.

My Dear Gurudev,

Please accept My most humble obeisance, Your most sacred writings and purports to scriptures are historical and set the true standards to worship God. I am forever in debt to you. Please allow me to continue following you, You enrich my life with the beauty of the transcendental. Now we can watch the sweet Lords pastimes eternally unfold like a lotus blooming in the most beautiful river. I thank you again and again for pulling me out of the dry and bitter world of void philosophy, oh how lost I was.

Forever your disciple,
-Mukunda das

My Beloved Spiritual Father,

It was no accident that I found your Srimad Bhagavatam video on Youtube. As I watched it, your visage and manner of speaking seemed so familiar to me. It was as if I was hearing a voice that I had forgotten. I felt that I had known you birth after birth and forgotten again and again but suddenly my memory returned to me.

By Krishna's arrangement I was able to visit you in Maryland, and I was finally able to present the padukas that I had been keeping for over a decade to present to my Guru, should I ever find one because I finally had found a true Guru! Indescribable joy consumed my heart when you accepted the padukas and me. As Bharata kept Lord Rama's padukas and worshiped them I also kept those padukas. Your sacred feet are imprinted on my heart and have changed a heart sculpted by sorrow and loss into one that beats again with the light of bhakti.

I only pray to always serve your lotus feet.

Swamiji, my humble obeissances at your sacred lotus feet. I pray for your mercy. I am unqualified to serve you or honor you properly. I am most fallen, have no faith, no devotion, no knowledge. But from the moment i saw you, you became my only light. From you i learned about the correct days for doing ekadashi and i am now fasting only according to your calendar. I dont know if i'll be fortunate enough to see you, but i pray at least to have the mercy of serving your words. All glories to you.

All Glories to His Divine Grace Jagadgurū Śrī Kṛṣṇa Chaitanya Mādhvagaḍeshwarāchārya
Śrīpāda Kṛṣṇa Balarām Swāmī Prabhupāda!

Dear Gurudeva,

Please accept our most humble and heartfelt obeisances at your Lotus Feet on this most sacred day of your divine appearance.

On this special day, we reflect with gratitude on the inconceivable mercy that has entered our lives through you. Every day we thank the Supreme Lord for the opportunity to render even the smallest service at your Lotus Feet. In this world of illusion and confusion, where real spiritual guidance is rare, we have somehow been blessed with a real Guru—a true Spiritual Master.

You are our refuge, our strength, and our light. In this dark age of Kaliyuga, you shine as our only hope. In our hearts, you are more dear to us than even Lord Kṛṣṇa Himself, because only through your mercy and shelter we can understand Him, approach Him, or have our humble service recognized by Him. Without your grace, there is no access to the spiritual world—no direction, no purpose.

As we do our small part in your Bhāgavat Dharma Samāj mission—especially preparing your Śrīmad Bhāgavatam video lectures each week and caring for the Lithuania Yatra—we feel so blessed and enlivened. Hearing your voice, your teachings, and your loving compassion fills us with enthusiasm and faith. You speak the truth with such clarity and kindness—without compromise—and we pray that the entire world will come to know and hear your words.

Our only wish is to serve you better and better, especially here in the Western countries, where so many souls are searching for real spiritual guidance. We want to help bring more fortunate souls to your Lotus Feet, so they too may find real shelter, life purpose, and love of God.

On this auspicious day of your appearance, we pray to Śrī Śrī Rādhā Govindaji to bless you with strong health and all divine protection, so that you may remain with us for many, many years—continuing to guide us, uplift us, bless this world, and give us your association.

Thank you, Gurudeva, from the depths of our hearts—for your causeless mercy, your shelter, and your divine presence in our lives.

Dearest Swamiji,

On this most auspicious and joy filled day I offer my deepest and most sincere greetings to You.

Happy birthday dear Swamiji!

Words often fall short in expressing the profound gratitude and reverence I feel for You. Your presence in my life is an immeasurable blessing light that illuminate the path of truth, love and self realization.

On Your special day I pray that You may always be blessed with perfect health, boundless energy. May your light continue to shine brightly, dispelling ignorance and igniting the flame of divine truth in hearts across the world.

Something was missing in my life so I searched for divine. Yet, while searching for Shiva, I found You and my life changed.

While visiting Vrindavan, Kumbha Mela Your presence made all challenges easily dissolved.

All the time I felt enveloped by Your gentle care at Vrindavan, Kumbha Mela. And even on my long journey to Lithuania I felt your mystic presence, which helped me navigate the airports chaos.

Later, at home I started chanting Hare Krishna, have read “Bhagavad Gita”, which gave me clarity and courage, also read “How to spend your best 7 days on Earth”. While reading “7 days” tears filled my eyes as Your words brought the sincere, sacred senses into my ordinary everyday life moments. These books became my everyday’s inspiration.

With all my love, devotion and respect I bow before You and offer my humble wishes.

A blissful, joyous birthday to you, dearest Swamiji!

Forever devoted,
Daina Maria (Doctor)
